HOPE FOR THE INNER CITY

Organization Overview

Over 50% of children in Hamilton County are born into economic instability and 70% of those stay stuck in the cycle of poverty as they grow into adulthood. At Hope, we are committed to providing the tools necessary for individuals and families to step out of the cycle of poverty and gain opportunities that they otherwise would not have.

Our programs seek to meet individuals in their needs by providing free groceries, low-cost dental care, low-cost vision care, and bill assistance while also offering the tools they need to reach economic stability.

We encourage each person who benefits from our programs to take part in our financial readiness program as well as join in on our community events so that they are able to gain the tools and encouragement they need to be financially stable. We believe for those who are seeking assistance in having their needs met, having a strong community around them is just as important as having financial and physical tools.

We believe that as a body of Christ, we cannot do this alone. We need other like-minded partners to walk alongside us and serve either through giving of their time, money, and/or other resources in order to utilize the gifts of the body to serve those who have much fewer resources. We ask that if you have been given resources to be used for the furthering of the kingdom of God, you partner with us to serve those in need. Together, we can bring Hope to East Chattanooga.

EVENT OVERVIEW

EVENT OVERVIEW

We invite you to join us as we will be gathering together to hear what God is doing in the lives of our neighbors as well as look at how we can work together to build stronger, more financially stable, Christ-centered communities. We are going to be joined by some amazing individuals as well as have the opportunity to take part in a matching gift from the Maclellan Foundation.

Randy Nabors is the founder of both Inner City Ministries and Hope for Chattanooga which merged in 2007 to create Hope for the Inner City. Randy is joining us this evening as our MC. He is currently working as the Pastor of Missions at First Presbyterian Church in Chattanooga.

Barbra Marter is the Executive Director of the Osborne Foundation as well as the Founder of the Nonprofit Resource Center in Chattanooga. She has been ongoing support and guide for us at Hope for the Inner City. We are delighted that she is joining us this evening to share her heart for Hope for the Inner City.

Maclellan

The Maclellan Foundation has graciously provided us with a $15,000 matching gift. This means the first $15,000 raised at our fundraiser will be matched!
